The background image is a rich, dark-toned interior space, likely a hallway or a room, featuring intricate Indian architectural details. A large, ornate arched mirror with a scalloped, carved frame is the central focus, reflecting a doorway and a smaller mirror. Below the mirror is a dark wooden table with decorative carvings. On the table sits a golden candelabra and a small brass pot. The walls are paneled with wood, and two ornate wall sconces with three lights each are visible on either side of the mirror. Large potted plants are positioned at the bottom left and right. The floor has a diamond-patterned tile design.
